The Daniela Steiner Cosmetics just celebrated its 20th anniversary in the luxurious beauty care in the heart of the Dolomites, where the success story of the brand began in 1989 with the first Spa.

"I am proud and honoured to see how this passion for beauty and well being has been welcomed and recognized by these prestigious awards", says Daniela Steiner, the Creative Director and owner of the Daniela Steiner Cosmetics. Born and raised in Austria, Daniela Steiner has a deep attachment to the Dolomites ,the home and birthplace of Steiner Cosmetics. She embodies the fit and healthy Alpine way of living, its vitality and cosmopolitan spirit. The beauty philosophy is based on healthy skin, essential treatments, holistic wellbeing and respect for the environment." To take care of one self and to feel good one needs positive thoughts. My objective has always been to create harmonious surroundings where purity, beauty, positivity and pureness are the key elements. People are to feel as relaxed as in their own homes when they stay with us. They can forget for a moment the stressful life that we live today and get their bodies as well as souls pampered and nurtured. Perfection and simplicity create beauty Continues Daniela Steiner. " With the encouragement of these awards we will continue to maintain our high standars and to fullfill the expectations of our partners and clients."
